Dear Bee-friendly Biz,

Bee Heroic, an info-to-action nonprofit project, is seeking eco and bee-friendly companies to sponsor our organic cotton/hemp Bee's T's (T-shirts) for our 2018 Pollen Nation Tour.

Bee Heroic is an adult-based project that focuses on bee/pollinator and climate issues and impacts. As you may know, pollinator numbers are declining at an unprecedented rate in human history. Viable honeybee populations, upon which entire economies, and human/biologic health depend, will be gone in within about a decade if we do not take immediate action.

Bee Heroic's Pollen Nation Tour will take place in several states throughout the country, educating people on the intrinsic and extrinsic value of pollinators; and what we can do to protect and support them.

Bee Heroic will be both, presenting, and hosting booths, at a variety of events occurring at venues throughout the country. From music and sustainability, to agriculture, and brew fests, Bee Heroic will be selling these awesome T's with your logo on the back. If you are interested in participating in supporting our fundraising efforts with these bee-huggin' T's, please contact Nikki Florio.

Cheers!

Nikki and the bees!

POLLEN NATION: BEE'S T'S SPONSOR:

Bee Heroic is an info-to-action nonprofit dedicated to providing the best information on problems and solutions related to pollinators, sustainability, and how climate and climate engineering impacts them.

Bee Heroic will be touring states throughout the US this year as presenters and hosts, and for outreach (hosting booths). This coast-to-coast project means we'll bee on the road passing through cities, towns, and farmlands, reaching out to those who love the bees/pollinators, and what they do for industries and health.

Bee Heroic Brags About Bee-Huggin' Sponsors

Bee Heroic sponsors are unique. We only accept sponsors we are PROUD to be associated with. We look carefully to ensure our sponsors are not greenwashers (or bee-washers), and proudly display their logos and promote their products/services.

What you get as a Bee's T's sponsor:

- Your logo on on the back of the run of Bee's T's for the event(s) of your choice
- An info poster about how you are bee/eco-friendly posted at these events +
- A big thank you from Bee Heroic and our awesome pollinators for supporting our efforts and protecting the lives of pollinators upon which our lives depend!

Where your money goes:

- Bee's T's will be sold at events as a fundraiser in order to help support our marketing, documentation, and educational efforts.
